"The word of the Lord came..." and everything _____.

About the time Jeremiah was called, to the casual observer,
things were looking _____ politically,
things were looking _____ economically,
things were looking _____ religiously.

God's view, as proclaimed through Jeremiah, was that things had to change, and his plan was to

- _____ and _____
- _____ and _____
- _____ and _____

Mark 1:15 – "God's Kingdom is _____!
_____, and _____ in the Good News.

Because God is for us, rawHOPE empowers a different kind of living, lives that...

To receive the word of the Lord through Jeremiah, we must be moved to a place where we _____ with God.

We must also nurture the capacity for _____.

Day 1 – Read: Jeremiah 1:5 and Ephesians 2:10

Ponder in Prayer: Consider God's call on your life.

Day 2 – Read: Genesis 6:5-7; Romans 1:18-32

Ponder in Prayer: Take time to grieve with God over the hearts of mankind.

Day 3 – Read: Romans 8:9-24

Ponder in Prayer: Celebrate your rescue, your right standing with God, and your hope of glory!

Day 4 – Read: Joshua 1:9 and Jeremiah 1:8

Ponder in Prayer: Identify and meditate on both the command and the promise found in these parallel verses.

Day 5 – Read: Matthew 28:18-20

Ponder in Prayer: Remember the command and promise from yesterday's meditation. Consider the commission God gives to you in today's Scripture, and seek a way to live out your calling this day.
